

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach

Table of Content

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach	7
Meaning of Yahusha (עשוהי)	7
Joshua (Yehoshua) – A Type of Yahusha	8
Yahusha (עשוהי) in Hebrew	9
Yahusha and Yeshua	9
Yahusha's Name and Divine Authority	10
The Relationship Between Yahuah (הוהי) and Yahusha (עשוהי)	10
The Connection Between Yahuah and Yahusha in Prophecy	11
Inseparable	12
Yahuah and Yahusha Are One in Purpose	13
Examples of Names That Contain Yahuah's Name	14
Yahusha Carries the Authority of Yahuah	15
Yahusha's Name Reveals Yahuah's Mission	15
Ruach HaKodesh (שדוקה חור)	17
The Name Ruach HaKodesh (שדוקה חור)	17
Purpose of Ruach HaKodesh (The Holy Spirit)	17
Ruach HaKodesh Empowers Yahusha and Believers	18
Ruach HaKodesh Teaches and Reveals Truth	18
Ruach HaKodesh Convicts and Transforms Hearts	18
Ruach HaKodesh is the Seal of Redemption	19
Ruach HaKodesh, Yahuah, and Yahusha Relationship	19
The Work of Ruach HaKodesh (שדוקה חור)	21
Ruach HaKodesh in the Old Testament (Tanakh)	21
Ruach HaKodesh Inspired the Prophets	22
The Prophecy of a Future Outpouring	22
Ruach HaKodesh in the New Testament (Brit Hadashah)	22

Ruach HaKodesh Conceived Yahusha	23
Ruach HaKodesh Filled Yahusha and Empowered His Ministry	23
Ruach HaKodesh is Given to All Believers	23
Ruach HaKodesh in the Old vs. New Testament	25
Spirit, Soul, and Body	26
Spirit (Pneuma and Ruach)	26
Soul (Psuche and Nephesh).	26
Body (Soma and Basar)	27
Zoe (Ζωή)	27
Relationship Between Spirit, Soul, and Body.	27
The Hierarchy of Spirit, Soul, and Body.	29
Live by the Spirit.	29
Transformation of the Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach).	30
The Spirit is Regenerated at Salvation	30
Indwelling of Ruach HaKodesh	30
Spiritual Gifts are Given.	30
Transformation of the Soul (Psuche/Nephesh)	30
The Soul is Being Sanctified	31
The Mind Must Be Renewed	31
Emotions Must Be Submitted to Ruach HaKodesh	31
The Will Must Be Submitted to Yahuah.	31
Transformation of the Body (Soma/Basar)	31
The Body Must Be Offered to Yahuah.	31
The Body Will Be Redeemed at the Resurrection	32
Walking in Transformation Daily	32
Be Led by Ruach HaKodesh	32
Fill the Soul with the Word of Yahuah.	32
Keep the Body in Obedience	33
Before and After	33

Verification Through Scripture	33
Linguistic Verification	34
Theological and Scholarly Verification	35
Transformation Follows a Logical Order	35
Logical and Biblical Consistency	35
Arguments and Possible Misinterpretations	35
The Explanation is Valid and Accurate	36
The Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach) Before Conversion	37
The Soul (Psucbe/Nephesh) Before Conversion	37
 The Soul is Corrupt Because of Sin	 38
The Body (Soma/Basar) Before Conversion	38
 The Complete Picture of an Unconverted Person	 39
Who Rules the Unconverted Life?	39
The Spirit is Born Again	40
The Soul Begins to be Transformed	40
The Body Becomes a Temple of Ruach HaKodesh	40
Before and After	40
 How Christ Comes to Live in the Heart of a Person Born Again	 40
The Process of Christ Dwelling in a Person's Heart	41
Yahusha (Christ) Enters Through Faith	41
The Holy Spirit Seals the Heart as Yahuah's Dwelling Place . .	41
Yahushua Begins to Transform the Heart.	42
The Believer Must Surrender Daily	42
How Christ Comes to Live in the Heart Chart.	43
Ways to Grow in Christ's Presence.	43
Christ in You, the Hope of Glory	44
 The Security of a True Believer.	 44
 Can a Person Reject Christ After Being Born Again?	 44
 A True Believer May Stumble, But Will Not Be Lost	 45

The Difference Between a True Believer and a False Convert	46
 Can Christ Be Removed from the Heart of a True Believer? . . .	47
The New Spirit is Indwelt by Ruach HaKodesh	49
 Where is the Born-Again Believer's Old Spirit?	50
 "The Flesh" is the Sinful Nature	50
Names for the Flesh in the Old Testament.	51
Basar (בָּשָׂר)	51
Yetzer HaRa (עֵצֶר הָרָע)	51
Leb (לֵב)	52
Names for the Flesh in the New Testament.	52
Sarx (Σάρξ)	52
Sōma tēs Hamartias (σ μ α τ ς ἁμαρτίας)	52
Palaiós Anthrōpos (παλαιὸς ἄνθρωπος)	53
The Names for the Flesh in OT and NT	54
Understand the Battle	54
The Flesh vs. The Spirit.. . . .	54
Crucify the Flesh Daily	55
Renew Your Mind with the Word of Yahuah	55
How to Renew Your Mind.	55
Be Led by the Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)	55
How to Be Led by the Spirit.	56
Replace	56
Bear the Fruit of the Spirit.. . . .	56
Watch and Pray to Overcome Temptation	56
Live in Daily Surrender to Yahuah.	56
How to Overcome the Flesh and Walk in the Spirit	58
Where Does the Flesh Reside?	58
The Flesh is Not a Separate Entity but a Corrupt Nature.	58
The Flesh Primarily Resides in the Soul and Body	59

The Flesh Does Not Reside in the Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach)	60
The Flesh Functions Between the Soul and Body	60
The Flesh, Soul, Spirit, and Body Diagram	61
Where Does the Flesh Reside?	62
Does Giving into the Flesh Mean a True Believer Loses
Salvation?	62
Can a True Believer Sin?	62
Does Sin Cause a Believer to Lose Salvation?	63
What Happens When a Believer Sins?	63
Can Someone Lose Their Salvation by Living in Sin?	64
Who Can Completely Reject Messiah After Believing?	64
How Can a Believer Avoid Giving into the Flesh?	65
Does Giving into the Flesh Mean Losing Salvation?	65

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach

"Yahusha Ha'Mashiach" (חישמה עשוהי) is the Hebrew name for Jesus the Messiah or Jesus Christ.

"Yahusha" (עשוהי) is a variation of Yahusha or Yahshua, meaning "Yahweh is salvation", closely related to the name Joshua (Yehoshua) in the Old Testament.

"Ha'Mashiach" (חישמה) means "The Anointed One", referring to the prophesied Messiah who fulfills God's plan of redemption.

This name emphasizes Jesus' Hebrew and Messianic identity, affirming that He is the fulfillment of the Old Testament prophecies about the Messiah. Many in the Hebrew Roots and Messianic Jewish movements use this name to highlight His connection to the Hebrew Scriptures and His divine mission.

The Significance of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach (חישמה עשוהי) in Scripture

The name Yahusha Ha'Mashiach (Jesus the Messiah) carries deep biblical and prophetic significance.

Meaning of Yahusha (עשוהי)

The name Yehusha (also spelled Yahusha or Yahshua) is derived from the Hebrew עשוהי (Yehoshua), which means "Yahweh is Salvation."

This name is directly related to Joshua (Yehoshua), who led the Israelites into the Promised Land, serving as a foreshadowing of Jesus leading believers into the Kingdom of God.

Numbers 13:16 – "And Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua (Yehoshua)."

Matthew 1:21 – "And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus (Yeshua, Yahusha), for He will save His people from their sins."

The angel Gabriel instructed Mary (Miryam) and Joseph (Yosef) to name the Messiah Yahusha (Yeshua) because He would fulfill the very meaning of His name—bringing salvation to His people.

Ha'Mashiach (חישמה) – The Anointed One

The word Mashiach (Messiah) means "Anointed One" and corresponds to the Greek Christos (Χριστός), which means Christ.

In the Old Testament, priests, kings, and prophets were anointed with oil as a sign of being chosen by God. Yahusha is the ultimate fulfillment of all three offices.

Prophet (Deuteronomy 18:15; John 6:14)

Priest (Psalm 110:4; Hebrews 4:14)

King (Zechariah 9:9; Revelation 19:16)

Messianic Prophecies

Isaiah 61:1 – "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, because the LORD has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor..."

Daniel 9:25 – "Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks..."

Yahusha is not just an anointed one, but THE Anointed One, the long-awaited Redeemer who was promised in the Hebrew Scriptures. The name Yahusha connects Jesus with key Old Testament figures who foreshadowed His mission.

Joshua (Yehoshua) – A Type of Yahusha

Joshua led Israel into the Promised Land, just as Yahusha leads believers into the Kingdom of God.

Both Joshua and Yahusha share the same name, showing how Joshua was a shadow of the true Savior.

Hebrews 4:8-9 – "For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day."

Jesus (Yahusha) fulfilled all prophecies concerning the Messiah.

The Samaritan woman said, "I know that Messiah is coming (who is called Christ)." Jesus told her, "The one you are looking for you are looking at" (John 4:25-26).

Peter declared, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the Living God" (Matthew 16:16).

The New Testament confirms that Yahusha is the fulfillment of the Torah and the Prophets, completing the work of salvation.

The name of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach holds divine authority (Acts 4:12; Philippians 2:9-11).

The name Yahusha reflects God's redemptive power. Calling upon His name in faith brings salvation, healing, and deliverance.

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach is the Fulfillment of Prophecy

Yahusha means "Yahweh is Salvation", revealing His divine mission.

Ha'Mashiach means "The Anointed One", confirming Him as the promised Messiah.

His name is the name above all names, bringing salvation to those who believe in Him.

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach (חישמה עשוהי) in Biblical Prophecy and Texts

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach fulfills biblical prophecy.

The Name Yahusha in Hebrew and Greek Texts

The name Yahusha (עשוהי) is deeply rooted in Hebrew Scripture and is linked to the Greek name Iēsous (Ἰησοῦς), which appears in the New Testament.

Yahusha (עשוהי) in Hebrew

Yahusha (Yahusha) is a contraction of Yehoshua (עשוהי), meaning "Yahweh is salvation."

The name appears in the Tanakh (Old Testament) in connection with Joshua, the son of Nun.

Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun, Joshua - עשוהי Yehoshua (Numbers 13:16).

Yahusha Translated as Iēsous (Ἰησοῦς) in Greek. The Septuagint (LXX), the Greek translation of the Old Testament, translates Yehoshua as Iēsous (Ἰησοῦς).

This same name, Iēsous, is used in the New Testament (Greek Text) for Jesus - (Matthew 1:21; Luke 1:31).

Yahusha and Yeshua

Some use Yeshua (עושי) instead of Yahusha for Jesus' name. Yeshua is a shortened form, while Yahusha retains the full divine meaning: "Yahweh is salvation." The distinction between Yeshua and Yahusha is debated in Messianic and Hebrew Roots movements.

The original Hebrew name of Jesus is more accurately Yahusha (עשוהי), meaning "Yahweh saves," aligning with His divine mission.

Messianic Prophecies Fulfilled in Yahusha Ha'Mashiach

Yahusha (Jesus) is the fulfillment of numerous Old Testament prophecies about the Messiah.

Prophecy of the Virgin Birth (Isaiah 7:14). Fulfilled (Matthew 1:23).

Messiah Born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). Fulfilled (Matthew 2:1).

The Suffering Servant (Isaiah 53:5). Fulfilled (Luke 22-23). (Isaiah 53:7).

Fulfilled (Matthew 27:12-14).

The Messiah's Resurrection (Psalm 16:10). Fulfilled (Acts 2:31-32).
 The Messiah's Return in Glory (Zechariah 14:4). Prophesied return (Revelation 19:11-16).

Every Messianic prophecy points to Yahusha Ha'Mashiach as the promised Redeemer who fulfills God's salvation plan.

Yahusha's Name and Divine Authority

The power and authority of Yahusha's name is central to the New Testament.

Salvation Comes Through His Name (Acts 4:12).

Healing in His Name (Acts 3:6).

Demons Flee in His Name (Luke 10:17).

Every Knee Will Bow to His Name (Philippians 2:9-11).

The name Yahusha Ha'Mashiach carries divine power and authority in salvation, healing, and dominion over darkness.

The Future Return of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach

The Second Coming of Yahusha is a central theme in both Old and New Testaments.

He Will Return in Power (Revelation 19:11-16).

Israel Will Recognize Him (Zechariah 12:10).

He Will Rule as King (Isaiah 9:6-7).

Yahusha's return will bring judgment, restoration, and His eternal kingdom.

He is coming as the Lion of Judah and the King of Kings.

Yahusha Ha'Mashiach is the true name of Jesus in Hebrew, meaning "Yahweh is Salvation." He fulfilled over 300 Messianic prophecies in the Old Testament. His name holds divine authority for salvation, healing, and spiritual victory. He will return in glory as the reigning King.

The Relationship Between Yahuah (יהוה) and Yahusha (עשוהי)

The connection between Yahuah (יהוה, Yahweh) and Yahusha (עשוהי, Yahusha/Jesus) is foundational to understanding the identity of the Messiah and His divine mission. Yahusha (Jesus) is the physical and redemptive expression of Yahuah, fulfilling the role of salvation while remaining in unity with the Father.

Yahuah (יהוה) – The Name of the Almighty. In the Hebrew Scriptures,

Yahuah (YHWH, Yahweh) is the personal name of God, revealed to Moses (Exodus 3:14-15). Elohim said to Moses, "I AM THAT I AM" (Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh). "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, I AM (היה) has sent me to you." Moreover, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: Yahuah (הוה), the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Isaac, and the Elohim of Jacob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever."

Yahuah is the Eternal, Self-Existent One and the source of all life. His name signifies His covenantal relationship with Israel.

Yahusha (עשוהי) – The Name of the Messiah. The name Yahusha (עשוהי) means "Yahuah is Salvation." It directly connects the Messiah to the Father (Matthew 1:21; John 5:43). The name Yahusha (עשוהי) is built upon the name Yahuah (הוה) and reveals His mission as the Savior. Yahusha bears the Father's name because He is the physical manifestation of Yahuah's salvation.

Yahusha is the Word of Yahuah Made Flesh (John 1:1, 14). Yahusha is the incarnate Word of Yahuah. He is one with Yahuah, yet distinct in function (John 10:30). "One" (Hebrew: Echad, אחד). This does not mean Yahusha and Yahuah are the same "person" but that they are one in essence and purpose (like husband and wife being "one flesh" in Genesis 2:24).

Yahusha Carries the Authority of Yahuah (Philippians 2:9-11). Yahusha was given the authority of Yahuah because He is the manifestation of Yahuah's salvation. Bowing to Yahusha brings glory to Yahuah (Colossians 1:15-17). Yahusha is the visible image of the invisible Yahuah. Through Him, all things were created.

The Name of Salvation is Yahusha - עשוהי (Acts 4:12). Salvation is only found in Yahusha (Yahuah Saves). The Messiah was not given a Greek name but a Hebrew one that reflects His mission.

The Connection Between Yahuah and Yahusha in Prophecy
 Isaiah Prophesied That Yahuah Would Become Our Salvation (Isaiah 43:11). "I am Yahuah (הוה), and besides Me, there is no savior."
 El is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid; For Yahuah (הוה) is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation - Yahusha (Isaiah 12:2). Yahuah is the only Savior, yet Yahusha is the Savior. This means Yahuah became salvation through Yahusha.

The Messiah is Called "Mighty Elohim" (Isaiah 9:6). The Messiah is called "Mighty Elohim" and "Everlasting Father," showing His divine identity. This connects Yahusha to Yahuah's nature.

Yahusha is the Only Way to Yahuah (John 14:6). Yahusha is the only way to Yahuah because He is Yahuah's manifestation of salvation. Just as Moses led Israel through the Red Sea, Yahusha leads believers into eternal life.

Yahuah and Yahusha Are Distinct Yet United (John 17:3). Yahusha acknowledges Yahuah as the true Elohim, showing distinction. He also says, "I and the Father are One" (John 10:30).

The Sun and Its Light. Yahuah is like the Sun—the source of life. Yahusha is like the sunlight—the visible expression of Yahuah. The sun and sunlight are distinct but inseparable.

Inseparable

Aspect	Yahuah (יהוה)	Yahusha (עשוהי)
Name Meaning	"I AM" (Self-Existent)	"Yahuah is Salvation"
Role	Creator, Father, Sovereign King	Messiah, Redeemer, King
Revealed in	The Torah, Prophets, Psalms	The Gospels, New Testament
Salvation	"I alone am Savior" (Isaiah 43:11)	"I am the Way, Truth, and Life" (John 14:6)
Authority	Giver of all life (Genesis 1:1)	All authority given to Him (Matthew 28:18)
Future	King over all creation (Zechariah 14:9)	Returning King (Revelation 19:16)

Yahuah and Yahusha Are One in Purpose

Yahuah (הוהי) is the Eternal Father, the Creator, and the Source of all. Yahusha (עשוהי) is the physical manifestation of Yahuah's salvation plan. Yahusha is not separate from Yahuah but is Yahuah's Word made flesh.

Understanding How Yahusha (עשוהי) is Built Upon Yahuah (הוהי)
When we say that "The name Yahusha (עשוהי) is built upon the name Yahuah (הוהי) and reveals His mission as the Savior," we mean that Yahusha's name literally contains Yahuah's name and expresses His divine mission of salvation.

The Name of Yahuah (הוהי) – The Divine Name

The sacred name of the Almighty is Yahuah (הוהי), often transliterated as Yahweh (Exodus 3:14-15). Elohim said, "I AM THAT I AM" (Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh). "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel, I AM (היהא) has sent me to you." Elohim said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the children of Israel: Yahuah (הוהי), the Elohim of your fathers... has sent me to you. This is My Name forever." The Tetragrammaton (הוהי, YHWH) is the personal name of the Creator. It expresses His eternal, self-existent nature: "I AM WHO I AM." This name was not just a title but a declaration of His identity and authority.

The Name Yahusha (עשוהי) – "Yahuah Saves"

How Yahusha (עשוהי) Contains Yahuah's Name

The name Yahusha (עשוהי) is a compound name that includes Yahuah's name (הוהי) and the Hebrew root עשי (yasha'), meaning "to save".

והי (Yahu) The first three letters of Yahuah (הוהי), meaning "Yahuah"
עש (sha') Derived from עשי (yasha'), meaning "to save, deliver, rescue"

Yahusha (עשוהי) = "Yahuah Saves" or "Yahuah is Salvation."

This means that Yahuah's very name is embedded in the name of Yahusha, showing that Yahusha comes in Yahuah's authority and fulfills His mission of salvation.

The Name Yahusha Expresses His Mission

Matthew 1:21 "And she shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Yahusha (עֵשׂוּהָי, Jesus), for He will save His people from their sins."

John 5:43 "I have come in My Father's Name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive."

Yahusha was not given an arbitrary name—His name declares His purpose.

Just as Moses led Israel into physical deliverance, Yahusha leads people into spiritual deliverance.

He came in Yahuah's name because His very name testifies that Yahuah is the One saving through Him.

Examples of Names That Contain Yahuah's Name

In Hebrew tradition, many names include "Yahu" or "Yah," reflecting Yahuah's presence and mission

Name
Hebrew Name	Meaning
YirmeYahu (וְהִמְרִי)	"Yahuah will exalt" (Jeremiah)
YeshaYahu (וְהִעֲשִׂי)	"Yahuah is salvation" (Isaiah)
EliYahu (וְהִילֵא)	"My God is Yahuah" (Elijah)
ZekarYahu (וְהִרְכֵּז)	"Yahuah remembers" (Zechariah)

Just like Isaiah (YeshaYahu) means "Yahuah is salvation," the name Yahusha directly reveals that Yahuah is the One bringing salvation. Yahusha's name carries a divine message: Salvation comes from Yahuah alone.

Yahusha is the Physical Manifestation of Yahuah's Salvation

Isaiah 43:11 "I, even I, am Yahuah (הוּאֵה), and besides Me, there is no savior."

Acts 4:12 "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

Since Yahuah declared that He alone is the Savior, this means Yahusha (whose name means "Yahuah saves") is the means by which Yahuah saves.

Yahusha is the physical manifestation of Yahuah's salvation plan.

Yahusha Carries the Authority of Yahuah

Philippians 2:9-11 "Therefore, Elohim has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Yahusha (עֵשׂוּהִי, Jesus), every knee should bow... and every tongue should confess that Yahusha Ha'Mashiach is Master, to the glory of Yahuah the Father."

Because Yahusha carries Yahuah's name, He carries divine authority. When we call on the name of Yahusha, we are declaring the salvation of Yahuah.

Yahusha's Name Reveals Yahuah's Mission

Concept	Yahuah (הוּהִי)	Yahusha (עֵשׂוּהִי)
Meaning	"I AM" (Self-Existent One)	"Yahuah Saves"
Divine Name	הוּהִי (YHWH)	עֵשׂוּהִי (YHWSH)
Mission	Creator, Sovereign King	Messiah, Redeemer
Salvation	"I alone am Savior" (Isaiah 43:11)	"I am the Way, Truth, and Life" (John 14:6)
Authority	The Almighty (Genesis 1:1)	"All authority has been given to Me" (Matthew 28:18)
Revealed in	Old Testament	New Testament
Connection	Father	The Son, but one in purpose with the Father

Yahusha's Name Reveals Yahuah's Mission

Yahuah (יהוה) is the eternal, self-existent Elohim.

Yahusha (ישוע) is the physical manifestation of Yahuah's salvation.

The name Yahusha contains Yahuah's name, showing that He came in Yahuah's authority.

By calling on Yahusha, we are declaring that Yahuah alone is our Savior.

Ruach HaKodesh (שְׁדוּקָה חוּר)

The Relationship Between the Name and Purpose

The Ruach HaKodesh (שְׁדוּקָה חוּר)—often translated as the Holy Spirit—is the divine Spirit of Yahuah (הוּאִי). The name Ruach HaKodesh directly reflects His nature and purpose, which is to bring holiness, wisdom, guidance, and empowerment to Yahuah's people.

The Name Ruach HaKodesh (שְׁדוּקָה חוּר)

"Ruach" (חוּר) – The Spirit, Breath, or Wind

Ruach (חוּר) means "breath, wind, or spirit" in Hebrew.

It represents the life-giving force of Yahuah.

It is the same word used in Genesis 1:2, where the Spirit (Ruach) of Elohim moved over the waters.

Genesis 1:2 "And the earth was without form and void, and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Ruach of Elohim moved upon the face of the waters."

Ruach is the active, moving presence of Yahuah. It is Yahuah's power at work in creation and throughout history.

"HaKodesh" (שְׁדָקָה) – The Holy or Set-Apart One

HaKodesh (שְׁדָקָה) means "the holy" or "the set-apart".

"Kodesh" comes from the root שָׁדַק (Q-D-SH), meaning "to be holy, set apart, consecrated."

This means Ruach HaKodesh is the Holy Spirit—set apart for divine work.

Leviticus 11:44 "For I am Yahuah your Elohim. You shall therefore be holy, for I am holy."

The Ruach HaKodesh is the Holy presence of Yahuah. Just as Yahuah is holy, His Spirit is set apart for righteousness and divine purposes.

Purpose of Ruach HaKodesh (The Holy Spirit)

The name Ruach HaKodesh not only defines the nature of the Spirit but also reveals His purpose.

Ruach HaKodesh Gives Life

Genesis 2:7 "And Yahuah Elohim formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath (Ruach) of life, and man became a living being."

Just as Yahuah breathed life into Adam, Ruach HaKodesh gives spiritual life to believers. Without the Spirit of Yahuah, there is no true life.

John 6:63 "It is the Spirit (Ruach) who gives life; the flesh profits nothing.
The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life."

Ruach HaKodesh Empowers Yahusha and Believers

Isaiah 61:1 "The Spirit (Ruach) of Yahuah is upon Me, because Yahuah has anointed Me to preach good news to the poor..."

Luke 4:18 (Yahusha Speaking) "The Spirit (Ruach) of Yahuah is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the Gospel to the poor..."

The Ruach HaKodesh anointed Yahusha, empowering Him for His mission.

In the same way, believers receive the Ruach for empowerment in ministry.

Acts 1:8 "But you shall receive power when the Ruach HaKodesh has come upon you, and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

Ruach HaKodesh Teaches and Reveals Truth

John 14:26 "But the Helper, the Ruach HaKodesh, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."

1 Corinthians 2:10-12 "But Elohim has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of Elohim..."

Ruach HaKodesh is our Teacher, guiding us into all truth.

He reveals the deep things of Yahuah, helping us understand Scripture and spiritual matters.

Ruach HaKodesh Convicts and Transforms Hearts

John 16:8 "And when He (Ruach HaKodesh) has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment."

Ezekiel 36:26-27 "I will give you a new heart and put a new Spirit within you... I will put My Spirit (Ruach) within you and cause you to walk in My statutes."

Conviction and transformation come through Ruach HaKodesh.

The Spirit helps believers repent and live righteously.

Ruach HaKodesh is the Seal of Redemption

Ephesians 1:13-14 "In Him (Yahusha) you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Ruach HaKodesh of promise, who is the guarantee of our inheritance."

Ruach HaKodesh is the "seal" that marks believers as belonging to Yahuah. This seal is the guarantee of eternal life.

Ruach HaKodesh, Yahuah, and Yahusha Relationship

Role	Yahuah (יהוה)	Yahusha (עשוהי)	Ruach HaKodesh (רוח שדוקה)
Identity	The Eternal Father	The Son, the Savior	The Set-Apart Spirit
Function	Creator, Sovereign King	Redeemer, Mediator	Comforter, Teacher, Power
Presence	Exists beyond time and space	God in the flesh (John 1:14)	God's Spirit dwelling in us (John 14:17)
Salvation Role	Initiated the plan of salvation	Fulfilled the plan of salvation	Applies salvation in believers' lives
Empowerment	Sent Yahusha (John 3:16)	Baptizes with the Spirit (Matthew 3:11)	Gives power to believers (Acts 1:8)
Indwelling	Filled the Tabernacle (Exodus 40:34)	Walked among us (John 1:14)	Lives inside believers (1 Corinthians 3:16)

Ruach HaKodesh is Yahuah's Spirit, just as Yahusha is Yahuah's Word made flesh.

Ruach HaKodesh empowers, teaches, convicts, and transforms believers—all according to the will of Yahuah through the work of Yahusha.

Ruach HaKodesh (שְׂדוּקָה חוֹר) means "The Set-Apart Spirit."

The name Ruach (חוֹר) signifies the breath, wind, and Spirit of Yahuah.

HaKodesh (שְׂדוּקָה) means "holy, set apart", showing His divine nature.

Ruach HaKodesh gives life, empowers believers, teaches, convicts, and seals redemption.

The Spirit of Yahuah dwells within believers, making them set apart (kadosh) for Yahuah's purpose.

The Work of Ruach HaKodesh (שְׂדוּקָה חוֹר)

in the Old Testament vs. the New Testament

Ruach HaKodesh—the Set-Apart Spirit of Yahuah—has been at work throughout history, from creation to redemption. However, His role changes between the Old Testament (Tanakh) and the New Testament (Brit Hadashah) due to the fulfillment of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach's mission.

Ruach HaKodesh in the Old Testament (Tanakh)

Ruach HaKodesh as the Life-Giver

Genesis 1:2 "The earth was without form and void, and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Ruach of Elohim was hovering over the face of the waters."

The Spirit of Yahuah was present at creation, actively giving order and life. He is the breath of Yahuah, filling all living things with life.

Genesis 2:7 "Then Yahuah Elohim formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath (Ruach) of life, and man became a living being."

Ruach HaKodesh is the breath of life—the divine power that gives humans their soul.

Ruach HaKodesh Came Upon Specific Individuals for Specific Tasks

In the Old Testament, Ruach HaKodesh did not permanently dwell in people. Instead, He would come upon individuals to empower them for specific tasks, such as prophecy, leadership, wisdom, and battle.

Numbers 11:25 "Then Yahuah came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit (Ruach) that was upon him (Moses), and placed the same upon the seventy elders. And it happened, when the Spirit rested upon them, that they prophesied, although they never did so again."

Ruach temporarily rested on leaders (Moses and the elders).

His presence empowered them, but it was not permanent.

Judges 6:34 "Then the Spirit of Yahuah came upon Gideon, and he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites gathered behind him."

Ruach empowered warriors like Gideon to lead and conquer.

1 Samuel 16:13-14 "Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers; and the Ruach of Yahuah came upon David from that day forward. But the Spirit of Yahuah departed from Saul, and a distressing spirit from Yahuah troubled him."

The Ruach HaKodesh could come and depart depending on Yahuah's will. Unlike in the New Testament, the Spirit was not permanently indwelling believers.

Ruach HaKodesh Inspired the Prophets

Ezekiel 2:2 "Then the Spirit entered me when He spoke to me and set me on my feet, and I heard Him who spoke to me."

Micah 3:8 "But truly I am full of power by the Ruach of Yahuah, and of justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin."

Ruach inspired the prophets, allowing them to speak Yahuah's words. His presence was selective, given only to prophets, priests, kings, and judges.

The Prophecy of a Future Outpouring

Although Ruach HaKodesh was limited in the Old Testament, the prophets foretold a time when He would be poured out upon all believers.

Joel 2:28-29 "And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days."

This prophecy points to the New Covenant, where Ruach HaKodesh would dwell in all believers permanently. This prophecy was fulfilled in Acts 2 (Pentecost).

Ruach HaKodesh in the New Testament (Brit Hadashah)

With the coming of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach, the role of Ruach HaKodesh changed dramatically. Instead of temporary empowerment, He now dwells permanently in believers.

Ruach HaKodesh Conceived Yahusha

Luke 1:35 "And the angel answered and said to her, 'The Ruach HaKodesh will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you; therefore, also, that Holy One who is to be born will be called the Son of Elohim.'"

The Ruach HaKodesh conceived Yahusha, showing His direct role in the Messiah's mission.

Ruach HaKodesh Filled Yahusha and Empowered His Ministry

Luke 3:22 "And the Ruach HaKodesh descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him (Yahusha), and a voice came from heaven which said, 'You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased.'"

Luke 4:1 "Then Yahusha, being filled with the Ruach HaKodesh, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness."

Yahusha was anointed and empowered by Ruach HaKodesh. His ministry was Spirit-led.

Ruach HaKodesh is Given to All Believers

Acts 2:1-4 (Pentecost) "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting... And they were all filled with the Ruach HaKodesh and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." Fulfilled Joel 2:28—now Ruach HaKodesh is poured out on all flesh.

This marked the beginning of the New Covenant, where all believers receive the Spirit.

John 14:16-17 (Yahusha Speaking)

"And I will pray to the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever—the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive."

Unlike in the Old Testament, Ruach HaKodesh now dwells in believers permanently.

1 Corinthians 3:16 "Do you not know that you are the temple of Elohim and that the Ruach of Elohim dwells in you?"

In the Old Testament, Ruach dwelled in the Temple—now He dwells in believers.

Ruach HaKodesh in the Old vs. New Testament

Aspect	Old Testament (Tanakh)	New Testament (Brit Hadashah)
Indwelling	Temporary	Permanent
Availability	Given only to prophets, priests, kings	Given to all believers
Empowerment	For specific tasks (prophecy, battle, leadership)	For daily life and ministry
Salvation Role	Limited	Seals and transforms believers
Sign of Presence	Prophecy, visions, miracles	Speaking in tongues, boldness, spiritual gifts
Main Work	Judgment, prophecy, empowerment	Teaching, conviction, guiding, empowering

In the Old Testament, Ruach HaKodesh was limited and temporary.

In the New Testament, Ruach HaKodesh dwells permanently in all believers.

Yahusha's work on the cross opened the way for all believers to receive the Spirit.

Spirit, Soul, and Body

The Bible presents a tripartite nature of humans: spirit, soul, and body. Different biblical languages (Hebrew and Greek) use distinct terms to describe these aspects, showing their interconnectedness.

Spirit (Pneuma and Ruach)

The God-Conscious Part. Greek: Pneuma (Πνεύμα) Breath, wind, spirit - The spiritual part of a person that connects to Yahuah. The life-giving breath from Yahuah.

1 Corinthians 2:11 "For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit (pneuma) of the man which is in him?"

Romans 8:16 "The Spirit (Pneuma) Himself bears witness with our spirit (pneuma) that we are children of Elohim."

Pneuma (spirit) is the God-conscious part of a human. The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) communicates with the human spirit.

Ruach (רוח) Breath, wind, spirit The immaterial part of man that relates to Yahuah.

Genesis 2:7 "Then Yahuah Elohim formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath (ruach) of life, and man became a living being."

Job 32:8 "But there is a spirit (ruach) in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding."

Ruach is the divine breath from Yahuah, making humans spiritually alive. The human spirit (ruach, pneuma) is the deepest part of a person that connects to Yahuah.

Soul (Psuche and Nephesh)

The Self-Conscious Part. Greek: Psuche (Ψυχή). Soul, mind, emotions, personality. The seat of emotions, intellect, and will.

Matthew 16:26 "For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul (psuche)?"

Luke 12:19 "And I will say to my soul (psuche), 'Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years; take your ease; eat, drink, and be merry.'"

Psuche (soul) is where thoughts, emotions, and decisions happen. It is the self-conscious part of a human.

Hebrew: Nephesh (נפש) Soul, living being, breath of life. A person's mind, emotions, will, and desires.

Genesis 2:7 "And man became a living soul (nephesh)."

Psalms 42:2 "My soul (nephesh) thirsts for Elohim, for the living Elohim."

Nephesh (soul) is who you are—your emotions, thoughts, and personality. It is different from ruach (spirit), but they are interconnected.

Body (Soma and Basar)

The World-Conscious Part. Greek: Soma (Σμα). Physical body, flesh, earthly vessel. The physical aspect of a person

1 Corinthians 6:19 "Do you not know that your body (soma) is the temple of the Ruach HaKodesh?"

Romans 12:1 "Present your bodies (soma) as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to Elohim."

Soma (body) is the earthly dwelling place of the soul and spirit. It is world-conscious—through senses, actions, and physical needs.

Hebrew: Basar (בשר). Flesh, body, physical life. The physical aspect of humans

Genesis 6:3 "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh (basar)."

Job 19:26 "And after my skin is destroyed, this I know, that in my flesh (basar) I shall see Elohim."

Basar (body) is temporary and will eventually decay. It is separate from the spirit and soul but is still essential.

Zoe (Ζωή)

The Divine, Eternal Life. Greek: Zoe (Ζωή) means "life, divine life, eternal life." Different from Bios (βίος), which means "biological life."

John 10:10 "I have come that they may have life (zoe), and have it more abundantly."

John 3:16 "For Elohim so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life (zoe aionios)."

Zoe is divine life—the life that comes only from Yahuah. Through Yahusha, believers receive zoe (eternal life).

Relationship Between Spirit, Soul, and Body

1 Thessalonians 5:23 "Now may the Elohim of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit (pneuma), soul (psuche), and body (soma) be preserved blameless at the coming of our Master Yahusha Ha'Mashiach."

Humans are tripartite beings (spirit, soul, body). Yahuah's sanctification involves all three parts.

The Hierarchy of Spirit, Soul, and Body

Aspect	Function	Consciousness	Associated Word
Spirit (Pneuma, Ruach)	Connects with Yahuah	God-conscious	Ruach, Pneuma
Soul (Psuche, Nephesh)	Mind, emotions, will	Self-conscious	Nephesh, Psuche
Body (Soma, Basar)	Physical world interaction	World-conscious	Basar, Soma

Function

Spirit (Ruach) leads

Soul (Nephesh/Psuche) aligns

Body (Basar/Soma) follows

Before salvation, the body and soul dominate a person, but after being born again, the spirit should lead.

Galatians 5:16 "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

When the Spirit leads, we live by Yahuah's will. If the soul (mind/emotions) or body dominates, sin can rule.

Spirit (Ruach/Pneuma) connects with Yahuah and receives eternal life (Zoe).

Soul (Nephesh/Psuche) is the mind, emotions, and will—our unique personality.

Body (Basar/Soma) is the physical vessel we live in.

Zoe (Divine Life) is the eternal, abundant life given through Yahusha.

Live by the Spirit

Romans 8:10 "If Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."

How Ruach HaKodesh Transforms Spirit, Soul, and Body

When a person is born again in Yahusha Ha'Mashiach, the Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) begins the process of transformation in every part of their being—spirit, soul, and body. Understanding this transformation is crucial for living a victorious and Spirit-led life.

Transformation of the Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach)

The New Birth

The Spirit is Regenerated at Salvation

Before salvation, the human spirit (pneuma/ruach) is dead because of sin.

Ephesians 2:1 "And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins."

Titus 3:5 "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Ruach HaKodesh."

The moment we believe in Yahusha, our spirit is made alive (regenerated). Regeneration means our spirit is reborn and can now connect with Yahuah.

Indwelling of Ruach HaKodesh

Romans 8:9 "But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of Elohim dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Messiah, he is not His."

1 Corinthians 6:17 "He who is joined to Yahuah is one spirit (pneuma) with Him."

The Ruach HaKodesh permanently indwells every believer. The human spirit is now one with Yahuah, allowing direct fellowship with Him.

Spiritual Gifts are Given

1 Corinthians 12:7-11 "The manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all... to one is given the word of wisdom, to another faith, to another gifts of healings, to another prophecy..."

The Ruach HaKodesh empowers believers with spiritual gifts for ministry. These gifts operate through our regenerated spirit.

Transformation of the Soul (Psuche/Nephesh)

Renewing the Mind

Even though our spirit is born again, our soul (psuche/nephesh) must be renewed. The mind, emotions, and will must be brought under Yahuah's control.

The Soul is Being Sanctified

James 1:21 "Receive with meekness the implanted Word, which is able to save your souls (psuche)."

Philippians 2:12 "Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling."

The soul is not instantly changed at salvation—it must go through sanctification. This requires daily renewal through the Word of Yahuah.

The Mind Must Be Renewed

Romans 12:2 "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of Elohim."

Renewing the mind means replacing old ways of thinking with Yahuah's truth. This happens through reading, meditating, and obeying the Word.

Emotions Must Be Submitted to Ruach HaKodesh

Galatians 5:22-23 "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control."

The Ruach HaKodesh produces fruit in our emotions and character. As we surrender, we become more Christ-like in our soul (thoughts, emotions, decisions).

The Will Must Be Submitted to Yahuah

Luke 22:42 "Not My will, but Yours be done."

Philippians 2:13 "For it is Elohim who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure."

Yielding our will to Yahuah is a key part of transformation. Ruach HaKodesh strengthens us to obey Yahuah's will.

Transformation of the Body (Soma/Basar)

A Living Sacrifice

Even though the body (soma/basar) is not yet redeemed, believers must keep it under Yahuah's authority.

The Body Must Be Offered to Yahuah

Romans 12:1 "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of Elohim, that you present your bodies (soma) as a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to Elohim."

The body must be submitted to Yahuah—no longer used for sin. Self-discipline is required to walk in holiness.

The Body Must Be Controlled by the Spirit

1 Corinthians 9:27 "But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection."

Galatians 5:16 "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

The body (flesh) has sinful desires. Ruach HaKodesh empowers us to overcome fleshly temptations.

The Body Will Be Redeemed at the Resurrection

Romans 8:23 "We also who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the redemption of our body (soma)."

1 Corinthians 15:52-53 "For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality."

At the resurrection, believers will receive glorified, immortal bodies. This completes the final restoration of spirit, soul, and body.

Walking in Transformation Daily

Since the spirit is already saved, the soul is being sanctified, and the body must be disciplined, how do we walk in victory?

Be Led by Ruach HaKodesh

Romans 8:14 "For as many as are led by the Spirit of Elohim, these are sons of Elohim."

Ruach HaKodesh wants to lead us daily in decisions, actions, and thoughts.

Fill the Soul with the Word of Yahuah

Colossians 3:16 "Let the Word of Messiah dwell in you richly in all wisdom."

The more of Yahuah's Word in us, the more transformed our soul becomes.

Keep the Body in Obedience

1 Thessalonians 4:4 "That each of you should know how to possess his own body in sanctification and honor."

We must train our physical habits, desires, and actions to align with holiness.

Before and After

Aspect	Condition Before Salvation	Condition After Salvation	Final Restoration
Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach)	Dead in sin	Made alive by Ruach HaKodesh	Fully united with Yahuah
Soul (Psuche/Nephesh)	Corrupted by sin	Being renewed daily	Fully transformed
Body (Soma/Basar)	Slave to sin	Must be disciplined	Will be glorified

Philippians 1:6 "He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach."

The validity and accuracy of the explanation regarding spirit (pneuma/ruach), soul (psuche/nephesh), and body (soma/basar) is firmly grounded in biblical texts, Hebrew and Greek word studies, and historical theological interpretations.

Verification Through Scripture

The threefold nature of humans is explicitly stated in the Bible.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 "Now may the Elohim of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit (pneuma), soul (psuche), and body (soma) be preserved blameless at the coming of our Master Yahusha

Ha'Mashiach."

Biblical Confirmation - Paul clearly identifies that humans have three distinct parts—spirit, soul, and body. Paul's prayer for complete sanctification involves all three components, meaning they are each significant in Yahuah's work of transformation.

Verification Through Linguistic Analysis (Hebrew and Greek Validity)

Spirit = Ruach (רוח) / Pneuma (Πνεμα)

Genesis 2:7 "And Yahuah Elohim formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath (ruach) of life, and man became a living being."

John 3:6 "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit (Pneuma) is spirit."

Linguistic Verification

Ruach (רוח) and Pneuma (Πνεμα) both mean breath, wind, spirit, confirming the spirit is the immaterial life-giving part from Yahuah. This confirms that the spirit (pneuma/ruach) is distinct from the soul and is the part that connects to Yahuah.

Soul = Nephesh (נפש) / Psuche (Ψυχή)

Genesis 2:7 "And man became a living soul (nephesh)."

Matthew 16:26 "For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul (psuche)?"

Nephesh (נפש) and Psuche (Ψυχή) both refer to the inner being, emotions, personality, and will. The Bible distinguishes spirit (pneuma/ruach) from soul (psuche/nephesh), showing they are not the same.

Body = Basar (בשר) / Soma (Σμα)

1 Corinthians 6:19 "Do you not know that your body (soma) is the temple of the Ruach HaKodesh?"

Genesis 6:3 "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh (basar)."

Basar (בשר) and Soma (Σμα) refer to the physical, material body. The body is distinct from the soul and spirit, aligning with the tripartite nature of humans.

Theological and Scholarly Verification

Church Fathers and Theologians Confirm the Threefold Nature

Irenaeus (c. 130–202 AD) – Early Church Father

Taught that man is composed of body (soma), soul (psuche), and spirit (pneuma) and that the spirit is the part that communes with Yahuah.

Origen (c. 184–253 AD) – Early Christian Theologian, taught the distinction between soul and spirit, describing how the spirit must govern the soul under the influence of the Ruach HaKodesh.

Watchman Nee (1903–1972) – Christian Theologian, In "The Spiritual Man," explains that the spirit is regenerated at salvation, the soul is renewed, and the body must be disciplined.

Throughout Church history, this tripartite view (spirit, soul, body) has been widely accepted. Early Christian theologians affirmed that Ruach HaKodesh regenerates the spirit, renews the soul, and disciplines the body.

Transformation Follows a Logical Order

Spirit – Is born again (John 3:6).

Soul – Is being renewed (Romans 12:2).

Body – Must be disciplined (1 Corinthians 9:27).

Romans 8:10-11 "If Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness... He who raised Yahusha from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit."

Logical and Biblical Consistency

This process aligns with the entire teaching of Scripture.

Yahuah first saves the spirit, renews the soul, and ultimately glorifies the body.

Arguments and Possible Misinterpretations

Some Theologians Believe in a Twofold Nature (Dichotomy: Body and Soul/Spirit)

Some argue that the Bible sometimes uses soul and spirit interchangeably (e.g., Luke 1:46-47).

Hebrews 4:12 clearly distinguishes soul and spirit - “For the Word of Elohim is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit.”

The threefold view (tripartite nature) best harmonizes all Scripture rather than forcing soul and spirit to be the same.

The Explanation is Valid and Accurate

Verification Method	Conclusion
Biblical Support	Clear evidence of spirit, soul, and body
Hebrew and Greek Analysis	Confirmed distinct meanings
Theological Tradition	Supported by early Church Fathers and scholars
Logical Consistency	Aligns with salvation and transformation process
Counter arguments Addressed	Proper distinction between spirit and soul

Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach) is reborn at salvation through Ruach HaKodesh. Soul (Psuche/Nephesh) is being renewed through the Word and obedience.

Body (Soma/Basar) must be disciplined and will be glorified at resurrection. The tripartite nature of humans is a biblically sound, theologically supported, and logically consistent doctrine.

The State of One’s Spirit, Soul, and Body Before Being Converted
 Before a person is born again through faith in Yahusha Ha’Mashiach, their spirit, soul, and body are in a fallen state due to sin. Each part of their being—spirit (pneuma/ruach), soul (psuche/nephesh), and body (soma/basar)—is affected by sin, leading to spiritual death, a corrupted soul, and a body enslaved to sinful desires.

The Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach) Before Conversion Dead and Disconnected

Ephesians 2:1 "And you were dead in trespasses and sins."

Colossians 2:13 "And you, being dead in your trespasses, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses."

"Dead" does not mean the human spirit ceases to exist. It means the spirit is separated from Yahuah, unable to connect or respond to Him.

Romans 8:7-8 "Because the carnal mind is enmity against Elohim; for it is not subject to the law of Elohim, nor indeed can be. So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please Elohim."

The human spirit is lifeless (dead) before salvation. It cannot connect with Yahuah or understand spiritual truths. Ruach HaKodesh is absent, leaving the spirit in a state of darkness. The Spirit Before Conversion = Dead, Separated from Yahuah, Unable to Perceive Truth

The Soul (Psuche/Nephesh) Before Conversion Corrupted and Deceived

Jeremiah 17:9 "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?"

Romans 1:21 "Because, although they knew Elohim, they did not glorify Him as Elohim, nor were thankful, but became futile in their thoughts, and their foolish hearts were darkened."

The Soul is Corrupt Because of Sin

The soul (psuche/nephesh) consists of the mind, emotions, and will. Before conversion, each part is in rebellion.

Aspect	Before Conversion	Biblical Evidence
Mind (Thoughts and Understanding)	Darkened, cannot understand Yahuah	1 Corinthians 2:14 – "The natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of Elohim, for they are foolishness to him."
Emotions (Desires and Feelings)	Controlled by sin and self	Romans 8:6 – "The mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace."
Will (Decisions and Choices)	Rebellious against Yahuah	John 8:44 – "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you want to do."

The mind is blinded by sin, preventing true understanding of Yahuah.

The emotions are corrupted, leading people to love sin and self instead of Yahuah.

The will is enslaved to sin, meaning people naturally choose rebellion over righteousness. The Soul Before Conversion = Darkened Mind, Corrupt Emotions, Rebellious Will.

The Body (Soma/Basar) Before Conversion

Slave to Sin

Romans 6:12 "Do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts."

Galatians 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like."

The Body is Controlled by the Flesh (Sinful Nature). The body (soma/basar) is meant to be a temple of Ruach HaKodesh (1 Corinthians 6:19), but before conversion, it is a slave to sin.

Romans 7:18 "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find."

The body follows sinful desires rather than Yahuah's will. The flesh (sinful nature) dominates, making it impossible to please Yahuah. This results in addictions, sinful habits, and destructive behaviors. The Body Before Conversion = Slave to Sinful Desires, Addictions, and Corruption.

The Complete Picture of an Unconverted Person The Threefold State Before Conversion

Aspect	Before Conversion	Biblical Condition
Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach)	Dead and separated from Yahuah	Ephesians 2:1
Soul (Psuche/Nephesh)	Corrupt, darkened, and rebellious	Romans 1:21
Body (Soma/Basar)	Slave to sin and fleshly desires	Romans 6:12

Who Rules the Unconverted Life?

The flesh (sinful nature) rules the body.

The soul is controlled by sinful thoughts, emotions, and desires.

The spirit is dead and powerless to resist sin.

John 3:6 "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

A person without Ruach HaKodesh is ruled by their sinful nature. Spiritual things seem foolish to them (1 Corinthians 2:14). They are spiritually dead and under the control of sin. The Unconverted Person is Completely Lost and Unable to Save Themselves.

How Does Conversion Change This?

The Spirit is Born Again

John 3:5-6 "Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of Elohim."

At Salvation - The spirit (pneuma/ruach) is made alive through Ruach HaKodesh.

The Soul Begins to be Transformed

Romans 12:2 "Be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

After Salvation - The mind, emotions, and will are renewed by the Word of Yahuah.

The Body Becomes a Temple of Ruach HaKodesh

1 Corinthians 6:19-20 "Do you not know that your body is the temple of Ruach HaKodesh?"

After Salvation - The body is no longer a slave to sin but a living sacrifice for Yahuah.

Before and After

Aspect	Before Conversion	After Conversion
Spirit	Dead, separated from Yahuah	Born again, connected to Yahuah
Soul	Corrupt, darkened, rebellious	Being renewed by the Word of Yahuah
Body	Slave to sin and flesh	A temple of Ruach HaKodesh

2 Corinthians 5:17 "If anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new!"

How Christ Comes to Live in the Heart of a Person Born Again

When a person is born again, Yahusha Ha'Mashiach (Jesus the Messiah) comes to dwell in their heart through Ruach HaKodesh (the Holy Spirit). This transformation is both spiritual and relational, bringing a person into union with Yahuah and making them a new creation.

The Process of Christ Dwelling in a Person's Heart

Ephesians 3:16-17 "That He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith."

Messiah dwells in the heart through faith. The Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) makes this possible by working in the inner person.

The Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) Regenerates the Heart

John 3:5-6 "Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of Elohim. That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

Titus 3:5 "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)."

Before salvation, the heart is dead in sin (Ephesians 2:1). Ruach HaKodesh regenerates the heart, making it alive to Yahuah. The person is born again, receiving a new heart and a new spirit (Ezekiel 36:26).

Yahusha (Christ) Enters Through Faith

Romans 10:9-10 "If you confess with your mouth that Yahusha is Master and believe in your heart that Elohim has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."

The new believer confesses Yahusha as Master and Savior. Through faith, Yahusha takes residence in their heart.

Galatians 2:20 "I have been crucified with Messiah; it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of Elohim."

This faith-union means Messiah literally takes over a person's heart, directing their new life.

The Holy Spirit Seals the Heart as Yahuah's Dwelling Place

Ephesians 1:13-14 "In Him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is the guarantee of our inheritance."

1 Corinthians 3:16 "Do you not know that you are the temple of Elohim and that the Spirit of Elohim dwells in you?"

Ruach HaKodesh seals the believer, guaranteeing their inheritance in Yahusha. The believer becomes a temple where Yahuah's Spirit dwells. This permanent indwelling means Christ is present continually.

Yahushua Begins to Transform the Heart

2 Corinthians 5:17 "If anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

Romans 12:2 "And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

Yahusha, through Ruach HaKodesh, begins transforming the believer's desires, thoughts, and actions. The believer starts to reflect the character of Messiah (Galatians 5:22-23).

The Believer Must Surrender Daily

Luke 9:23 "Then He said to them all, 'If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross daily, and follow Me.'"

John 15:4-5 "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me."

Messiah lives in the heart of the believer, but He must be given control daily. The believer must walk in the Spirit (Galatians 5:16) and abide in Messiah. This means living a life of obedience, prayer, and love for Yahuah.

How Christ Comes to Live in the Heart Chart

Step	What Happens?	Biblical Reference
Spirit is Regenerated	Ruach HaKodesh gives new life to the heart	John 3:5-6, Titus 3:5
Yahusha Enters by Faith	The believer receives Yahusha as Master	Romans 10:9-10, Galatians 2:20
Sealed by Ruach HaKodesh	The believer becomes Yahuah's temple	Ephesians 1:13-14, 1 Corinthians 3:16
Heart is Transformed	Yahusha changes desires, thoughts, and character	2 Corinthians 5:17, Romans 12:2
Daily Surrender	The believer walks in obedience and abides in Messiah	Luke 9:23, John 15:4-5

Christ enters by faith, not by works (Ephesians 2:8-9).

Ruach HaKodesh makes His presence real, confirming salvation (Romans 8:16).

Transformation is a lifelong process, requiring surrender (Romans 12:1-2).

The believer must walk in the Spirit daily to maintain closeness with Messiah (Galatians 5:25).

Ways to Grow in Christ's Presence

Spend time in prayer and worship (Psalm 51:10).

Read and meditate on the Word daily (Psalm 119:11).

Obey Yahusha's teachings and walk in love (John 14:23).

Resist sin and live in holiness (1 Peter 1:16).

Surround yourself with believers who encourage your faith (Hebrews 10:25).

Colossians 3:16 "Let the Word of Messiah dwell in you richly in all wisdom."

The more a believer fills their heart with the Word, the more Christ's presence will manifest in their life.

Christ in You, the Hope of Glory

Colossians 1:27 "To them Elohim willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory."

Yahusha lives in the heart of every true believer.

His presence brings transformation, peace, and eternal hope.

Abiding in Him daily allows His love and power to be fully experienced.

Can Christ Be Removed from the Heart of a True Believer is a crucial theological question with profound implications for salvation, spiritual security, and the relationship between the believer and Yahusha Ha'Mashiach. The Bible provides clear teachings on assurance of salvation, the believer's responsibility, and warnings against falling away.

The Security of a True Believer

Yahusha Promises Eternal Life

A True Believer is Sealed and Secure in Yahusha

John 10:27-29 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand."

True believers ("My sheep") have eternal life and will never perish. No external force (Satan, people, circumstances) can remove them from Christ. Yahuah's power secures them—they are in His hand.

Ephesians 1:13-14 "Having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) of promise, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession."

The Holy Spirit seals believers, marking them as Yahuah's possession. This seal is a guarantee, meaning that true believers are secured for eternal life. A true believer cannot lose salvation because they are sealed, secured, and kept by Yahusha and the Father. Christ remains in their heart forever.

Can a Person Reject Christ After Being Born Again?

Warnings Against Falling Away. While no external force can remove Christ from the heart of a believer, the Bible warns against apostasy (deliberate rejection of faith).

Hebrews 6:4-6 "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit... if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance, since they crucify again for themselves the Son of Elohim, and put Him to open shame."

Scripture warns about falling away after experiencing Yahuah's power. Some interpret this as losing salvation, while others believe it refers to those who were never truly saved.

2 Peter 2:20-21 "For if, after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Master and Savior Yahusha Ha'Mashiach, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the beginning."

Some who have known the truth can still turn back to sin and reject Messiah. The consequence is spiritual destruction.

John 15:5-6 "I am the vine, you are the branches... If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned."

Abiding in Messiah is necessary for spiritual life. If someone chooses to stop abiding, they are cut off from the vine. A true believer will not reject Messiah because they are born again and transformed. However, the Bible warns that if someone deliberately rejects Yahusha after knowing Him, they risk spiritual destruction. This suggests that some who claim to be believers may not be truly saved.

A True Believer May Stumble, But Will Not Be Lost

Proverbs 24:16 "For a righteous man may fall seven times and rise again."

1 John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

True believers may sin, but they will repent and be restored. Ruach HaKodesh convicts them and brings them back to Yahuah.

Luke 22:31-32 (Peter's Denial)

"Simon, Simon! Indeed, Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, strengthen your brethren."

Peter denied Yahusha three times, but he repented and was restored. Yahusha's prayer protected Peter from losing faith completely. A true believer may struggle with sin, but they will always return to Yahuah. The Holy Spirit convicts them and restores them.

The Difference Between a True Believer and a False Convert

Those Who Depart Were Never Truly Saved

1 John 2:19 "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us."

Those who abandon the faith were never truly born again. True believers remain in Messiah.

Matthew 7:21-23

"Not everyone who says to Me, 'Master, Master,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven... Then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'"

Some outwardly claim to follow Messiah but never had a real relationship with Him.

True believers persevere in faith. False converts may appear saved but eventually fall away because they never truly knew Yahusha.

Can Christ Be Removed from the Heart of a True Believer?

Question	Biblical Answer
Can external forces remove Christ from a believer?	No (John 10:27-29)
Can Satan remove Christ from a believer?	No (Romans 8:38-39)
Can a believer stumble into sin and still be saved?	Yes, they can repent and be restored (1 John 1:9)
Can a person reject Christ after being saved?	A true believer will not reject Christ, but a false convert may fall away (1 John 2:19)

True believers are secure in Christ and cannot be forcibly removed from Him.

However, those who profess faith but are not truly born again may fall away or reject Him. True believers may stumble, but Ruach HaKodesh convicts them and leads them back.

Philippians 1:6 "He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach."

When a person is born again in Yahusha Ha'Mashiach, their old spirit is not just repaired but completely replaced. The old, dead spirit is removed, and a new, living spirit is given by Ruach HaKodesh (the Holy Spirit). This transformation is spiritual regeneration, making the believer a new creation in Messiah.

Before being born again, every person's spirit (pneuma/ruach) is dead in sin, meaning it is separated from Yahuah and unable to connect with Him. Ephesians 2:1 "And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins."

Colossians 2:13 "And you, being dead in your trespasses, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses."

The old spirit is spiritually dead due to sin. It has no power to respond to Yahuah or follow His will. It is not simply "weak" or "sick"—it is completely dead.

The Old Spirit is Crucified and Replaced with a New One. When a person is born again, Yahuah does not repair or heal their old spirit—He removes it and replaces it with a new, living spirit.

Ezekiel 36:26-27	"I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you; I will take the heart of stone out of your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes."
2 Corinthians 5:17	"Therefore, if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."
Galatians 2:20	"I have been crucified with Messiah; it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me."

The old spirit is crucified with Messiah (Galatians 2:20).

A new spirit is given, not a repaired one (Ezekiel 36:26).

The believer is made completely new—not just improved (2 Corinthians 5:17).

The old spirit is crucified with Messiah and removed by Yahuah.

The old spirit no longer exists in the believer—it has been replaced by a new spirit.

The Old Spirit is Not Dormant—It is Gone. Some mistakenly believe that the old spirit is still inside the believer but inactive. However, Scripture never teaches that the old spirit remains in any form.

Romans 6:6	"Knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin."
------------	--

Romans 8:10	"And if Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness."
-------------	---

The old nature (spirit) is dead, not sleeping.

The new spirit is alive and fully functional.

There is no halfway transformation—the old is gone, and the new has fully replaced it.

The old spirit is dead and removed—it does not remain in the believer.

Only the new spirit, made alive by Ruach HaKodesh, now exists.

Some may ask, "If the old spirit is gone, why do I still struggle with sin?"
The answer lies in the difference between the spirit and the flesh.

Galatians 5:16-17 "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh."

Romans 7:18-20 "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells... Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me."

The old spirit is gone, but the flesh (sinful nature) still exists.

The new spirit fights against the old sinful desires in the flesh.

This struggle is why believers must renew their minds daily (Romans 12:2).

The flesh still exists and must be controlled.

The battle is not between two spirits—it is between the new spirit and the flesh.

The New Spirit is Indwelt by Ruach HaKodesh

Romans 8:11 "But if the Spirit of Him who raised Yahusha from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Messiah from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you."

1 Corinthians 6:19 "Do you not know that your body is the temple of Ruach HaKodesh, who is in you?"

Ruach HaKodesh indwells the believer's new spirit, making them a temple of Yahuah. The old spirit cannot exist alongside Ruach HaKodesh. This means the believer is fully transformed from the inside out.

The old spirit is removed so that Ruach HaKodesh can dwell in the new spirit.

Only the new spirit, filled with Ruach HaKodesh, remains.

Where is the Born-Again Believer's Old Spirit?

Question	Biblical Answer
Is the old spirit still in the believer?	No, it was crucified with Messiah (Galatians 2:20).
Is the old spirit dormant or inactive?	No, it is completely removed (Ezekiel 36:26).
What remains in the believer?	A new spirit, made alive by Ruach HaKodesh (Romans 8:10).
Why does a believer still struggle with sin?	Because the flesh still exists and must be disciplined (Galatians 5:16-17).

Colossians 3:3 "For you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in Elohim."

The old spirit is dead and removed. The believer receives a new spirit that is alive in Yahusha. The battle is not between two spirits, but between the new spirit and the sinful flesh. Ruach HaKodesh dwells in the new spirit, making the believer a temple of Yahuah.

Romans 6:4 "Just as Messiah was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

The old spirit is gone—it was crucified with Messiah. The believer now has a new spirit, alive in Messiah and filled with Ruach HaKodesh. Victory over sin comes by walking in the Spirit and crucifying the flesh daily.

The flesh or sinful nature refers to the fallen, corrupt nature of humanity that is opposed to Yahuah. This nature is inherited from Adam and drives people toward sin, rebellion, and self-centeredness. The Bible gives it different names in the Old Testament (OT) and New Testament (NT), emphasizing its characteristics and influence.

"The Flesh" is the Sinful Nature

- Romans 7:18 "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find."
- Galatians 5:17 "For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another."

The flesh is not just the physical body but a spiritual principle of sinful rebellion against Yahuah. It resists Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit) and seeks self-gratification over obedience. Even believers must fight against the flesh daily.

Names for the Flesh in the Old Testament

Basar (בָּשָׂר)

Literal Flesh, Human Weakness, Mortal Life. Hebrew: בָּשָׂר (Basar). Flesh, body, human nature, physical weakness. Used for the human body but also sinful weakness

Genesis 6:3 "And Yahuah said, 'My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh (basar).'"

Psalm 78:39 "For He remembered that they were but flesh (basar), a breath that passes away and does not come again."

"Basar" means physical flesh but is sometimes used to describe human weakness and sinfulness. It does not always mean "sinful nature" directly, but it implies human limitations and moral corruption.

Yetzer HaRa (עֵצֶר הָרָע)

The Evil Inclination. Hebrew: עֵצֶר הָרָע (Yetzer HaRa). The inclination to do evil, sinful desires, inner wickedness. The internal sinful nature that drives rebellion.

Genesis 6:5 "Then Yahuah saw that the wickedness (Yetzer HaRa) of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually."

Jeremiah 17:9 "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it?"

The Yetzer HaRa is the evil inclination within humanity. It is often contrasted with the Yetzer HaTov (good inclination), but Scripture teaches that apart from Yahuah, the Yetzer HaRa dominates. This concept is parallel to "the flesh" in the New Testament.

Leb (לֵב)

The Deceitful Heart. Hebrew: לֵב (Leb). Heart, inner being, seat of thoughts, will, and emotions. The corrupt inner nature that leads to sin.

Genesis 8:21 "The imagination of man's heart (leb) is evil from his youth."

Proverbs 28:26 "He who trusts in his own heart (leb) is a fool."

"Leb" refers to the inner person, which is naturally inclined toward sin. In the New Testament, this is similar to the "old self" or "sinful nature."

Names for the Flesh in the New Testament

Sarx (Σάρξ)

Flesh, Sinful Nature. Greek: Σάρξ (Sarx). Flesh, physical body, but also the fallen human nature. The sinful inclination that opposes Yahuah.

Romans 8:7-8 "Because the carnal mind (sarx) is enmity against Elohim; for it is not subject to the law of Elohim, nor indeed can be. So then, those who are in the flesh (sarx) cannot please Elohim."

Galatians 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh (sarx) are evident: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, idolatry, sorcery, hatred..."

"Sarx" means both physical flesh and the sinful, rebellious human nature. Paul contrasts "living in the flesh" with "walking in the Spirit."

Sōma tēs Hamartias (σ μ α τ ς ἁμαρτίας)

Body of Sin. Greek: σ μ α τ ς ἁμαρτίας (Sōma tēs Hamartias). The body ruled by sin, sinful condition of the flesh. The sin-dominated body that must be crucified.

Romans 6:6 "Knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, that the body of sin (sōma tēs hamartias) might be done away with."

The "body of sin" refers to the corrupt nature inherited from Adam. It must be crucified with Messiah for true victory over sin.

Palaiós Anthrōpos (παλαιὸς ἄνθρωπος)

The Old Self. Greek: παλαιὸς ἄνθρωπος (Palaiós Anthrōpos). The "old man," the former sinful nature before salvation. The old sinful identity that must be put off.

Ephesians 4:22 "That you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old self (palaiós anthrōpos), which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts."

Colossians 3:9-10 "Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old self (palaiós anthrōpos) with its deeds, and have put on the new self."

This phrase describes the sinful nature that was crucified at salvation. The believer must "put off" the old self daily by walking in the Spirit.

The Names for the Flesh in OT and NT

Term	Language	Meaning	Biblical Example
Basar (בָּשָׂר)	Hebrew	Flesh, human weakness	Genesis 6:3
Yetzer HaRa (עֵצֶר רָע)	Hebrew	Evil inclination, sinful desires	Genesis 6:5
Leb (לֵב)	Hebrew	The deceitful heart	Jeremiah 17:9
Sarx (Σάρξ)	Greek	Flesh, sinful nature	Romans 8:7-8
Sōma tēs Hamartias (σ μ α τ ς ἁμαρτίας)	Greek	Body of sin	Romans 6:6
Palaiós Anthrōpos (παλαιὸς ἄνθρωπος)	Greek	Old self, sinful identity	Ephesians 4:22

Overcoming the flesh (sinful nature) and walking in the Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh) is essential for living a victorious life in Yahusha Ha'Mashiach. The Bible provides clear steps and principles to help believers crucify the flesh, renew their minds, and walk in obedience.

Understand the Battle

The Flesh vs. The Spirit.

Galatians 5:16-17 "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another."

The flesh and the Spirit are in constant conflict. You cannot live by both—you must choose daily to walk in the Spirit. The flesh leads to. Sin, selfishness, worldliness. The Spirit leads to Holiness, obedience, love.

Crucify the Flesh Daily

Galatians 5:24 "And those who are Messiah's have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires."

Romans 6:6 "Knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin."

The flesh has already been crucified positionally in Messiah. But we must put it to death daily by refusing to obey its desires. Deny sinful desires. Say no to temptation (Luke 9:23). Starve the flesh. Avoid things that feed sinful thoughts (Romans 13:14). Confess and repent quickly. Do not let sin take root (1 John 1:9).

Renew Your Mind with the Word of Yahuah

Romans 12:2 "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of Elohim."

Colossians 3:2 "Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth."

Your mind determines whether you walk in the flesh or the Spirit.
Renewing your mind means replacing worldly thinking with Scripture.

How to Renew Your Mind.

Daily Bible study and meditation (Psalm 1:2).

Speak and declare Yahuah's truth over your life (Joshua 1:8).

Avoid corrupt influences (media, ungodly conversations) (Psalm 101:3).

Be Led by the Spirit (Ruach HaKodesh)

Romans 8:14 "For as many as are led by the Spirit of Elohim, these are sons of Elohim."

John 16:13 "When He, the Spirit of Truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth."

Walking in the Spirit means being led by Ruach HaKodesh in decisions, thoughts, and actions.

Listening and obeying the Spirit keeps us from following the flesh.

How to Be Led by the Spirit.

Pray for the Spirit's guidance daily (Luke 11:13).

Listen for His voice in Scripture, worship, and prayer (Isaiah 30:21).

Obey immediately when the Spirit convicts you (James 1:22).

Replace Fleshly Works with Spiritual Fruit

Galatians 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh are evident: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, idolatry, hatred, jealousy, selfish ambitions..."

Galatians 5:22-23 "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control."

You can't just "stop sinning"—you must replace sinful habits with spiritual fruit.

As you walk in the Spirit, He produces godly character in you.

Bear the Fruit of the Spirit.

Ask Ruach HaKodesh to fill you daily (Ephesians 5:18).

Practice love, patience, and kindness even when you don't feel like it (Colossians 3:12-14).

Stay in fellowship with strong believers who encourage godliness (Hebrews 10:25).

Watch and Pray to Overcome Temptation

Matthew 26:41 "Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

1 Peter 5:8 "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour."

The flesh is weak—you need constant prayer to overcome it.

Spiritual vigilance prevents falling into sin.

Overcome Temptation

Pray daily for strength against sin (Luke 22:40).

Run from situations that feed the flesh (2 Timothy 2:22).

Use Scripture to resist temptation like Yahusha did (Matthew 4:4-10).

Live in Daily Surrender to Yahuah

Luke 9:23 "If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me."

Galatians 2:20 "I have been crucified with Messiah; it is no longer I who live, but Messiah lives in me."

Walking in the Spirit is a daily commitment to surrender to Yahusha. Dying to self means living for Messiah and not our own desires.

Begin each day by dedicating yourself to Yahuah (Romans 12:1).
Ask Yahuah to align your will with His will (Psalm 143:10).
Say "Yes" to Yahuah even when it's difficult (Matthew 26:39).

How to Overcome the Flesh and Walk in the Spirit

Step	Action	Biblical Reference
1. Recognize the Battle	The flesh fights the Spirit	Galatians 5:17
2. Crucify the Flesh Daily	Deny sinful desires	Galatians 5:24
3. Renew Your Mind	Fill your mind with Scripture	Romans 12:2
4. Be Led by the Spirit	Pray and follow Ruach HaKodesh's guidance	Romans 8:14
5. Replace Sin with Spiritual Fruit	Walk in love, joy, peace	Galatians 5:22-23
6. Watch and Pray	Be vigilant against temptation	Matthew 26:41
7. Live in Daily Surrender	Take up your cross and follow Yahusha	Luke 9:23

Romans 8:13 "For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live."

You don't have to fight the flesh alone—Ruach HaKodesh empowers you! The more you yield to the Spirit, the less power the flesh has. Victory comes through faith, obedience, and intimacy with Yahuah. Would you like a daily action plan to help stay strong in the Spirit?

Where Does the Flesh Reside?

The flesh (sinful nature) is not a physical organ or location but a spiritual condition that affects the whole being—spirit, soul, and body. However, it primarily operates through the body and influences the soul, seeking to dominate a person's decisions, desires, and actions.

The Flesh is Not a Separate Entity but a Corrupt Nature

Romans 7:18 "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find."

Galatians 5:17 "For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another."

The flesh is not a physical organ but a spiritual condition inherited from Adam.

It resists the Spirit of Yahuah and seeks to control human behavior.

It exists within the fallen human nature, corrupting the soul and influencing the body.

The Flesh Primarily Resides in the Soul and Body

While the flesh is not an isolated "thing" in a specific location, Scripture suggests that it functions through the soul and body, attempting to dominate both.

The Flesh Resides in the Soul (Mind, Emotions, Will)

Ephesians 4:22 "That you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old self (palaiós anthrōpos), which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts."

Romans 8:5-6 "For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

The soul (psuche/nephesh) is the battlefield where the flesh and the Spirit struggle.

The flesh influences the mind by producing sinful desires and worldly thinking.

This explains why believers must renew their minds (Romans 12:2) to resist the flesh.

The flesh tries to dominate the soul through sinful thoughts, emotions, and choices.

If the mind is not renewed, it will submit to the flesh's desires.

The Flesh is Active in the Body (Physical Desires and Lusts)

Romans 6:12 "Do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts."

Galatians 5:19-21 "Now the works of the flesh are evident: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, idolatry, hatred, contentions, jealousy, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, envy, drunkenness, revelries, and the like."

The body (soma/basar) is where the flesh expresses itself through sin. The body itself is not evil, but the flesh uses it as an instrument for sin. Sinful habits like lust, addiction, gluttony, and laziness operate through the body.

The flesh operates through bodily cravings and appetites. The body must be disciplined and brought under the Spirit's control (1 Corinthians 9:27).

The Flesh Does Not Reside in the Spirit (Pneuma/Ruach)

Romans 8:9 "But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of Elohim dwells in you."

John 3:6 "That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

The flesh does not reside in the spirit because the spirit of a born-again believer is regenerated.

The spirit is the part of a believer that connects with Yahuah.

The battle is between the renewed spirit and the unrenewed soul/body.

The spirit is not affected by the flesh but must overcome it.

The spirit, empowered by Ruach HaKodesh, leads the battle against the flesh.

The Flesh Functions Between the Soul and Body

The flesh influences both the soul and body, creating a spiritual battle between the Spirit and the flesh.

1 Peter 2:11 "Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against the soul."

The flesh wars against the soul—this means the battle happens at the level of desires and thoughts.

The body expresses what the soul chooses—if the soul submits to the flesh, sin manifests in actions.
--

If the soul submits to the Spirit, righteousness is expressed through obedience.
--

The flesh primarily operates between the soul and body, trying to influence both.

If the soul submits to the flesh, the body follows in sin.

If the soul submits to the Spirit, the body follows in obedience.

The Flesh, Soul, Spirit, and Body Diagram
Here's how the flesh, soul, spirit, and body interact.

Spirit (Ruach/Pneuma) → Wants to obey Yahuah (Romans 8:14)
--

Soul (Psuche/Nephesh) → The battlefield between the flesh and Spirit (Romans 12:2)
--

Flesh (Sarx/Yetzer HaRa) → Seeks to control the soul through sinful desires (Galatians 5:17)
--

Body (Soma/Basar) → Carries out what the soul chooses (Romans 6:12)

Where Does the Flesh Reside?

Possible Location	Biblical Answer
Does the flesh reside in the spirit?	No, the spirit is renewed (Romans 8:9)
Does the flesh reside in the soul?	Yes, it influences the mind, emotions, and will (Romans 8:5-6)
Does the flesh reside in the body?	Yes, it expresses itself through bodily desires (Romans 6:12)
Does the flesh exist between the soul and body?	Yes, it operates in both and tries to dominate them (1 Peter 2:11)

Romans 8:13 "For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live."

The flesh functions between the soul and body, influencing thoughts and actions.

The spirit is not affected by the flesh but is engaged in a battle against it. Victory comes when the soul submits to the Spirit instead of the flesh.

Does Giving into the Flesh Mean a True Believer Loses Salvation?

A true believer may struggle with sin and fleshly desires, but this does not mean they lose their salvation. The Bible teaches that salvation is a work of Yahuah and that true believers are sealed by Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit). However, falling into sin has serious consequences, including discipline from Yahuah and loss of rewards, but not necessarily loss of salvation.

Can a True Believer Sin? Yes.

Even Paul Struggled with the Flesh

Romans 7:18-19 "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice."

Galatians 5:17 "For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another."

Even Paul acknowledged the battle between the flesh and the Spirit. Sin is still present in believers, but it does not have the final authority.

A true believer can still sin and struggle with the flesh. Giving into the flesh does not immediately cancel salvation.

Does Sin Cause a Believer to Lose Salvation? No.

Salvation is a Work of Yahuah, Not Human Effort

Ephesians 2:8-9 "For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of Elohim, not of works, lest anyone should boast."

John 10:27-29 "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand."

Salvation is a gift from Yahuah—not earned by works. If salvation was dependent on human behavior, no one would be saved. True believers are held in Yahuah's hand and cannot be snatched away.

A believer's security is based on Yahuah's power, not human performance. Sin does not remove salvation, but it can damage fellowship with Yahuah.

What Happens When a Believer Sins?

Sin Brings Spiritual Consequences

1 John 1:6 "If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth."

Hebrews 12:6 "For whom Yahuah loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives."

Sin does not remove salvation, but it damages fellowship with Yahuah. Yahuah disciplines His children to bring them back to repentance.

Sin weakens spiritual intimacy but does not remove salvation.
Yahuah corrects and restores believers, leading them to repentance.

Can Someone Lose Their Salvation by Living in Sin?

True Believers Cannot "Live in" Sin Permanently

1 John 3:9 "Whoever has been born of Elohim does not sin, for His seed remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of Elohim."

Romans 6:1-2 "Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it?"

This does not mean believers never sin, but that true believers cannot live in ongoing, unrepentant sin.

If someone claims to be saved but lives in sin with no conviction, they may have never been truly born again.

A true believer will not remain in sin forever—Ruach HaKodesh will convict and lead them to repentance.

If someone persists in sin without repentance, they may have never truly been born again.

Who Can Completely Reject Messiah After Believing?

Were They Ever Truly Saved?

1 John 2:19 "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us."

Hebrews 6:4-6 "For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit... if they fall away, to renew them again to repentance."

Some people seem to be believers but later completely reject Messiah. Scripture suggests they were never truly saved in the first place.

True believers may fall into sin temporarily but will always return to Yahuah.

Those who fully reject Messiah after "believing" may have never been truly born again.

How Can a Believer Avoid Giving into the Flesh?

Galatians 5:16 "Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

Romans 12:2 "Be transformed by the renewing of your mind."

1 Corinthians 10:13 "No temptation has overtaken you except such as is common to man; but Elohim is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able."

Walk in the Spirit daily gives victory over sin.

Renew the mind with Scripture strengthens the soul against temptation.

Yahuah provides a way out of every temptation—believers must choose obedience.

Daily prayer and surrender (Luke 9:23).

Immerse in the Word (Psalm 119:11).

Accountability with other believers (James 5:16).

Obedience to Ruach HaKodesh (Romans 8:14).

Does Giving into the Flesh Mean Losing Salvation?

Question	Biblical Answer
Can a believer struggle with sin?	Yes, even Paul did (Romans 7:18-19).
Does sin remove salvation?	No, salvation is based on grace, not works (Ephesians 2:8-9).
Can a believer live in sin permanently?	No, Ruach HaKodesh will convict them (1 John 3:9).
What if someone completely rejects Messiah?	They may have never been truly saved (1 John 2:19).
How should a believer overcome the flesh?	Walk in the Spirit, renew the mind, and obey Yahuah (Galatians 5:16).

Philippians 1:6 "He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Yahusha Ha'Mashiach."

Sin does not remove salvation, but it damages spiritual fellowship.
True believers may stumble, but they will always return to Yahuah.
If someone completely rejects Messiah, they may have never been truly born again.